

Strange Weather and Stranger People

👁 7 ✓ 0 ★ 1

Chapter 1 by lightningstrikesannah (I'm back!)

I looked out my window and saw a flurry of snowflakes rush past. This would have been normal weather for me, since I lived in New York.

The only problem was that it was July 17th.

*

Reporters all over the world were claiming that it was flooding in California and Texas, and there was 90 degrees temperatures in Alaska.

Everyone seemed to be confused, but I wasn't.

Because I knew why this strange weather was happening.

And the secret was buried in a box in my backyard.
